Hi,

I'm just writing out some of our bills while Diane is playing on her bike with the kitty in the basket. Diane plays with that cat endlessly. In fact she's played with about nothing else since we've got him. Don't worry though, mom, we'll keep him in another room when you get here.

Liz has been running in the mornings, and Diane goes along with me. She gets a lot of exercise with that plus her P.E. & Ballet classes.

We're getting excited to see you. Diane asks me every day how much longer

it will be, and is lining up things to show you that she can do.

Well, I better get back to work.

Love,

Mary
